In a recent post, there were multiple taggings of various companies/agencies in relation to a weblink pasted article "how to stop mass gun shootings". Tagging multiple agencies/companies in posts like this (to a web link related article) can be perceived as spam like/unwelcomed activity from these companies.

Going forward, we ask you take this into consideration when posting content on LinkedIn.

LinkedIn Safety Operations Support Specialist Member (08/17/2019 14:58 CST) Thank You Wyatt for restoring my account.

I still do not see where you have answered my specifics here and provided me the exact content that violated your rules as SPAM.

Let's understand the activities that I am bringing awareness of.

It is NOT SPAM as there can be no SPAM when there are no commercial applications to my postings for monetary transactions of any kind.

Let's go it in a different route,

A LinkedIn Article Posted by the United Nations says it plain.

Wyatt,

What content are you referring to that has been deemed spam or unsolicited?

Let's get something straight here even though I am not straight but gay. [a joke:)]

If there are involvements online --- which there is -- of systemic hate that is not being addressed within a community, and that the United Nations itself says that FIGHTING HATE MUST BE A JOB FOR EVERYONE. And when those everyones that are in the line of this fight complain against the fighting style of a peacebuilding networking platform [with no monetary linking incentives at all], that such a fight is carried forward by "informational theory" to be "named" or "called out" for their is violating the rules of the suggestions of the United Nations. There can be no middle ground here to understand my actions.

YOU CANNOT WARN ME ABOUT VIOLATIONS OF SITE RULES OF SPAM WHEN THERE HAVE BEEN NO SUCH VIOLATIONS,

please provide those examples please. if you are unwilling or unable or it is not capable of providing such real-world content

violations, then your justifications to restrict my account has no basis to have been done twice now and for the 3rd time

WARNING again there should be no basis for such a claim of content violation when I am following certain moral guidance

#WordsToLiveBy upon our world, that it too is the basis to express outward these #WordsToLiveBy for our society to follow.

Again Wyatt,

I ask very nicely to provide the content that you deem spam or unsolicited

When you have been given #WordsToLiveBy by the United Nations.

Here are #WordsToLiveBy spoken by Pope Francis to the address of the United States in front of Congress Sept 2015:

Image Source: http://wordstoliveby.gruwup.net : Great Reasons Us Will Unite Peace

Unsolicited You Say? I Say Pope Francis Calls Us In These Words --- DEMANDS US TO CONFRONT every form of POLARIZATION

that puts us into a division of two camps, the righteous and the sinners.

In that a confront action perhaps would be UNSOLICITED --- because it is calling out the needed attention to the actions that need to be corrected and amended. So that is what I am doing. But someone out there does not like it, because I am calling them out of their wrongdoing. When the social media platform is being a to the whims of hate to flag, block, bitch, moan, and complain

when they are being called out and are being shown to be exposed to their wrong actions. THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NOTHING

WRONG WITH THIS APPROACH AND EVERYTHING RIGHT.

Acting as to the role of the historian in the role of these applied #WordsToLiveBy circa 1750s.

It says: "Therefore He Who Would Rescue From Fast Gathering Oblivion The Deeds Of A Community" [Your Support Ticketing Here]

continuing, "and send them onto futurity in an imperishable record" [we can determine that content on LinkedIn is perishable], continuing, "shall deliver a plain unvarnished tale." --- and that my dearest friends of peace are what can be established by misaligned social media networking structures of technology. [See: http://humanetech.com/problem [17]].

Because someone in the LinkedIn clan of support staff does not see the points of brining these #WordsToLiveBy into actionable address, is not my fault.

Wyatt, for the last time in this text, I ask you to provide the exact content that was deemed to be a violation of your terms and rules.

If you cannot provide such a real-world citation of content back to me, this is not violation #2 --- redact yourself to withdraw your warning of another offense will subject me to termination of my account.

This email will be faxed to:

1 Master CEO Jeff Weiner - Da Boss 1 (650) 810-2897

Please notice that the #WordsToLiveBy circa 1750s appears in the publication of this Psychology Book under

I feel like I am being individually discriminated against. Why?

What you are telling me here --- what I did as an offense that if I continued to do -- would be to then have the outcome [your goal] to terminate my account...

Can you explain to me this video below? Are you telling me this video does not exist? You are telling me that the advice in this video is wrong?

Are you telling me that this video should be pulled? What exactly are you telling me when you apply this video that I did wrong?

If "Mass Gun Shootings" is a topic that should apply to the "United Nations" posting that we as a collective "Fighting hate must be a job for everyone"

Then exactly who is not applicable to being tagged? [ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS]

Finally, if it is I that have some solutions to bring forward about how to stop mass gun shootings, why shoot the messenger of this ---- terminate his account --- instead of listening to me?

---- THIS SUPPORT TICKET AGAIN WILL BE FAXED TO YOUR CEO JEFF WEINER ----

You guys are absolutely individually targeting me to try to get me off your social platform --- because I give logics to what must be applied to our society --- this society needs some social medicine to stop these mass guns shootings in the United States of America. I am going to place the fax to your CEO online in this folder location:

In a recent post, there were multiple taggings of various companies/agencies in relation to a weblink pasted article "how to stop mass gun shootings". Tagging multiple agencies/companies in posts like this (to a web link related article) can be perceived as spam like/unwelcomed activity from these companies.

Wyatt,

What content are you referring to that has been deemed spam or unsolicited?

Let's get something straight here even though I am not straight but gay. [a joke:)]

If there are involvements online --- which there is -- of systemic hate that is not being addressed within a community, and that the United Nations itself says that FIGHTING HATE MUST BE A JOB FOR EVERYONE. And when those everyones

that are in the line of this fight complain against the fighting style of a peacebuilding networking platform [with no monetary

linking incentives at all], that such a fight is carried forward by "informational theory" to be "named" or "called out" for their roles of enabling or perhaps direct perpetrating hatred into the community, I am not violating rules of LinkedIn if Linkedin

please provide those examples please. if you are unwilling or unable or it is not capable of providing such real-world content

violations, then your justifications to restrict my account has no basis to have been done twice now and for the 3rd time

WARNING again there should be no basis for such a claim of content violation when I am following certain moral guidance

#WordsToLiveBy upon our world, that it too is the basis to express outward these #WordsToLiveBy for our society to follow.

Again Wyatt,

I ask very nicely to provide the content that you deem spam or unsolicited.

When you have been given #WordsToLiveBy by the United Nations.

Here are #WordsToLiveBy spoken by Pope Francis to the address of the United States in front of Congress Sept 2015:

Image Source: http://wordstoliveby.gruwup.net : Great Reasons Us Will Unite Peace

Unsolicited You Say? I Say Pope Francis Calls Us In These Words --- DEMANDS US TO CONFRONT every form of POLARIZATION

that puts us into a division of two camps, the righteous and the sinners.

In that a confront action perhaps would be UNSOLICITED --- because it is calling out the needed attention to the actions that

them out of their wrongdoing. When the social media platform is being a "bad net actor" out here on the Internet that does not make these corrections into our interconnections, we are left powerless

to the whims of hate to flag, block, bitch, moan, and complain

WRONG WITH

THIS APPROACH AND EVERYTHING RIGHT.

Acting as to the role of the historian in the role of these applied #WordsToLiveBy circa 1750s.

It says: "Therefore He Who Would Rescue From Fast Gathering Oblivion The Deeds Of A Community" [Your Support Ticketing Here]

continuing, "and send them onto futurity in an imperishable record" [we can determine that content on LinkedIn is perishable],

continuing, "shall deliver a plain unvarnished tale." --- and that my dearest friends of peace are what can be established by misaligned social media networking structures of technology. [See: http://humanetech.com/problem [17]]. Because someone in the LinkedIn clan of support staff does not see the points of brining these #WordsToLiveBy into actionable address, is not my fault.

Wyatt, for the last time in this text, I ask you to provide the exact content that was deemed to be a violation of your terms and rules.

If you cannot provide such a real-world citation of content back to me, this is not violation #2 --- redact yourself to withdraw your warning of another offense will subject me to termination of my account.

This email will be faxed to:

1 Master CEO Jeff Weiner - Da Boss 1 (650) 810-2897

Please notice that the #WordsToLiveBy circa 1750s appears in the publication of this Psychology Book under the section titled: "Social Improvement" --- and is why I am doing the actions online that I do.... to change

What content are you referring to that has been deemed spam or unsolicited?

Let's get something straight here even though I am not straight but gay. [a joke :)]

If there are involvements online --- which there is -- of systemic hate that is not being addressed within a community, and that the United Nations itself says that FIGHTING HATE MUST BE A JOB FOR EVERYONE. And when those everyones

that are in the line of this fight complain against the fighting style of a peacebuilding networking platform [with no monetary

linking incentives at all], that such a fight is carried forward by "informational theory" to be "named" or "called out" for their

is violating the rules of the suggestions of the United Nations. There can be no middle ground here to understand my actions.

YOU CANNOT WARN ME ABOUT VIOLATIONS OF SITE RULES OF SPAM WHEN THERE HAVE BEEN NO SUCH VIOLATIONS,

please provide those examples please. if you are unwilling or unable or it is not capable of providing such real-world content

violations, then your justifications to restrict my account has no basis to have been done twice now and for the 3rd time

WARNING again there should be no basis for such a claim of content violation when I am following certain moral guidance

#WordsToLiveBy upon our world, that it too is the basis to express

J - J - -- 1

I ask very nicely to provide the content that you deem spam or unsolicited.

When you have been given #WordsToLiveBy by the United Nations.

Here are #WordsToLiveBy spoken by Pope Francis to the address of the United States in front of Congress Sept 2015:

Image Source: http://wordstoliveby.gruwup.net : Great Reasons Us Will Unite Peace

Unsolicited You Say? I Say Pope Francis Calls Us In These Words --- DEMANDS US TO CONFRONT every form of POLARIZATION

that puts us into a division of two camps, the righteous and the sinners.

In that a confront action perhaps would be UNSOLICITED --- because it is calling out the needed attention to the actions that

them out of their wrongdoing. When the social media platform is being a "bad net actor" out here on the Internet that does not make these corrections into our interconnections, we are left powerless to the whims of hate to flag, block, bitch, moan, and complain

when they are being called out and are being shown to be exposed to their wrong actions. THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NOTHING

WRONG WITH THIS APPROACH AND EVERYTHING RIGHT.

Acting as to the role of the historian in the role of these applied #WordsToLiveBy circa 1750s.

It says: "Therefore He Who Would Rescue From Fast Gathering Oblivion The Deeds Of A Community" [Your Support Ticketing Here]

continuing, "and send them onto futurity in an imperishable record" [we can determine that content on LinkedIn is perishable],

continuing, "shall deliver a plain unvarnished tale." --- and that my dearest friends of peace are what can be established by misaligned social media networking structures of technology. [See:

support staff does not see the points of brining these #WordsToLiveBy into actionable address, is not my fault.

Wyatt, for the last time in this text, I ask you to provide the exact content that was deemed to be a violation of your terms and rules.

If you cannot provide such a real-world citation of content back to me, this is not violation #2 --- redact yourself to withdraw your warning of another offense will subject me to termination of my account.

This email will be faxed to:

1 Master CEO Jeff Weiner - Da Boss 1 (650) 810-2897

Please notice that the #WordsToLiveBy circa 1750s appears in the publication of this Psychology Book under the section titled: "Social Improvement" --- and is why I am doing the actions online that I do.... to change the social dynamics that are out here in the erosion of trust [that LinkedIn actually attributes causes erosions] that leads to murder and mass shootings [Washington Post: Oct 2017]

Hi James,

Thanks for complying and adhering with our policies. I've gone ahead and removed the restriction on your account. However, please be advised that this is your final warning regarding abuses on the LinkedIn site. If your account is reported again after today's date, your LinkedIn account will be subject to termination.

In regards to posted content, the feeds of your connections are personalized for them based on people they follow, their connections, and their engagement on LinkedIn. The more engaging and relevant your post is, the more likely it is to appear in their feeds.

We work to keep the platform focused on discussions relating to professional interests and activities. Content that doesn't appear to relate to these topics may not reach a wide audience. Lastly, any content that doesn't comply with LinkedIn's User Agreement and Professional Community Policies may be subject to removal.

Thanks for your cooperation.

Yes, I agree to your terms. I have tried my best to be within these terms. Spam? That is what you are going to default yourself to?

Can you tell me exactly what post or content is considered this spam violation for my own knowledge so I will be extremely informed and extremely more careful to not do this again.

Ah, but why are all of my online posting articles also cascading down this chain of restrictions?

Why would my posts form years back 2017 be considered spam?

It is not. How about my latest entry #9Scourges12Steps -- The 9 Scourges of Inequality and the 12 steps of Social Improvement to Rebuild Trust In Our Communities.

Why are my articles missing online? I only had 15 so it really is not a huge loss in the aftermath of this intractable conflict of a wicked problem that I seek to correct in our society.
